ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint, the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and the evidence presented at the detention hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Juan Salazar-Trejo is a citizen of the United Mexican States.
2. The testimony of the ICE agent at the detention hearing establishes that Salazar-Trejo entered this country without any documents allowing him to enter.
3. There is no evidence that Salazar-Trejo has any family or employment ties to the United States.
4. The Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has placed a detainer on Salazar-Trejo.
5. Salazar-Trejo is a flight risk, and no condition or combination of conditions of release would reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas on September 12, 2005.
